The forts of Przemyśl and Jaroslau, on the River San, and Cracow on the Vistula river are the only obstacles the Austrians now have to prevent the Russian advance.

Miss Pankhurst said that the English women are ready to fight in the line if needed.

STUBBORN STRUGGLE IS RAGING

Big Battle Goes On East of Paris.

FRENCH DECLINE TO GRANT ARMISTICE

Commander Makes Curt Reply to German Request.

Paris, Sept. 9.—The battle which is proceeding to the east of Paris appears to be the most important and most stubbornly fought combat of the campaign. The military authorities decline to give any indication of the number of men engaged, but hundreds of thousands are participating on both sides.

According to those in a position to obtain authentic information the casualties have been so great that the Germans have requested an armistice of twenty-four hours. The armistice was refused with the response: "We grant you that time to get out of France."

An official communication issued by the war office shows that the German wing, while retreating before the allies, has offered the sternest resistance, delivering several fierce but unsuccessful counter attacks.

"The fighting extended along both the Ourcq and Marne rivers," the statement says. "In the latter region the British forces have engaged in a strong offensive in undulating country. The progress of the allies has been exceedingly difficult."

"In the center of the allied line several further encounters have occurred, the two opposing forces having varying fortunes, which, however, are regarded as more favorable to the allies than to their adversaries."

FIGHTING EAST OF PARIS

French and British Armies Capture Many Germans.

Paris, Sept. 9.—The following official communication, bearing on the fighting now in progress to the east of the capital, was made public:

"The left wing of the allied armies, comprising certain portions of the forces now defending Paris, continues to make progress against the enemy."

"The French advance reaches from the banks of the river Ourcq into the Montmirail region. (Montmirail is about forty-eight miles east of Paris). The enemy is retreating in the direction of the River Marne, between Meaux (twenty miles east of Paris) and Sezanne (forty-two miles east from Meaux)."

"The French and the English armies have taken numerous prisoners, including a battalion of infantry and a company serving a detachment of rapid fire guns. They captured also many gun carriages."

"At no place have we fallen back; the enemy has lost ground."

French Troops Are Pressing Retreating Germans.

Paris, Sept. 9.—An official communication issued by the French war office says:

"The left wing of the German forces, in their move of retreat, having crossed the Petit Morin river with a view to protecting their communications, have made violent but unsuccessful attacks against that part of our forces occupying the right bank of the river Ourcq."

"Our English allies are continuing their offensive tactics in the direction of the Marne on the heights of the north of Sezanne."

"Our troops are progressing favorably, though laboriously."

"On our right wing the situation is good before Nancy and in the Vosges."

"A severe engagement has been fought in the center with alternative advancing and falling back."

TIME FOR ACTION AT HAND

General Joffre Issues Stirring Order to French Troops.

London, Sept. 9.—A Reuter dispatch from Antwerp says an official communication there refers to an order by General Joffre, Sept. 7, in which he alludes to the impatience of his troops and says:

"This is no longer the moment to look behind, but the time has come to attack and drive back the enemy and to defend the ground regained, at any cost."

A. CONAN DOYLE.

Writes to Papers About Protection From Mines.

LOSSES FROM MINES AT SEA ROIL BRITONS

Conan Doyle Joins Others in Writing to Papers.

London, Sept. 9.—The destruction of the British cruiser Pathfinder and other vessels by mines has provoked much discussion regarding protection against mines.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and other prominent men have written letters to the papers inquiring why devices were not used to save ships from mines.

The British admiralty has long been investigating equipment for the explosion of mines before ships struck them. More than 1,000 devices for this purpose have been offered in England, but the British have found all effective equipment so heavy as to retard the speed of vessels. Nets strong enough to resist the pressure of water and discharge mines of fer such a resistance that their use is impossible.

"As a consequence, it is explained, the British, like other nations, have found mine sweepers the only satisfactory way to clear the seas of explosives. Two small boats dragging a heavy wire rope between them are used for the purpose of clearing the steamer routes. Scores of these are at work in the North sea."

Germany is not a signatory to The Hague convention, forbidding the use of mines, therefore England, which is at war with Germany, could use mines without violating The Hague convention. The British admiralty, however, announces that it refuses to resort to mines.

TWO FAMOUS CHURCHES BURNED BY INVADERS.

London, Sept. 9.—According to the correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company at The Hague the Germans have burned two famous churches at Dinant, Belgium. One was the Church of St. Joseph, which contained an altar piece of Rubens, which was destroyed.

TURK'S WORDS REPUDIATED

Replies From State Department and British Embassy.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Both the state department and the British embassy here repudiated the suggestion of A. Rustem Bey, the Turkish ambassador, in his authorized statement, that Great Britain might be endeavoring to draw the United States into the European war in urging the dispatch of an American warship to Turkish waters to care for Christian interests in Turkey.

It is known authoritatively that Great Britain's expression on the subject answered an inquiry by the United States as to whether it would object to the sending of an American warship. The American government has authorized the powers before sending the cruiser North Carolina to Turkey.

GERMAN LOSSES ENORMOUS

French Officer Estimates Prisoners at Thirty Thousand.

Paris, Sept. 9.—Accounts of wounded soldiers who reached Paris indicate that the result of the three days' fighting in the champagne country has been more favorable for the allies than at first supposed. They say the German losses in killed were enormous and that a great number of prisoners were taken. One French officer estimates the prisoners at 30,000. The champagne district includes parts of the departments of Marne, Ardennes, Aube and Haute-Marne.

FORCE LINE BACKABOUT TEN MILES

British Forces Defeat Germans.

TAKING OFFENSIVE ALONG ALLIED FRONT

Kaiser's Legions Are Said to Have Suffered Severely.

London, Sept. 9.—The British official press bureau issued the following announcement:

"The general position continues satisfactory. The allies are gaining ground on their left all along the line of the Ourcq and Petit Morin rivers. The British have driven the enemy back ten miles."

"Fighting has been in progress further to the right along the line which includes Montmirail and Sommes, neither side gaining advantage."

"Further to the right, again from Vitry-le-Francois to Sermaize-la-Bains, the enemy has been pressed back in the direction of Rheims."

"At Luneville an attempt by the Germans to advance has been repulsed."

"Pressure against the enemy continues all along the allied fronts. The British force has been engaged all day, but the enemy opposed to it, after stubborn resistance, retired and is crossing to the north of the Marne."

"The Fifth French army has advanced with equal success and reports many captures."

"The Sixth French army on the Ourcq has been engaged heavily, but here also the enemy has been driven back."

"The German army has suffered severely along the whole line, the advance having been pushed home resolutely."

"The British force again has sustained some casualties, but the number is small in relation to the nature of the fighting."

"The result of the two days' operations up to the present is very satisfactory."

MUST HUSBAND RESOURCES

Great Britain Will Carefully Guard Her Finances.

London, Sept. 9.—"We want every penny we can raise to help fight the enemy," David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, said, replying to a deputation from the municipalities who wanted the help of the treasury in obtaining loans at cheap rates.

"We must come out triumphant in this struggle," continued the chancellor, "and as finance is going to play a very important part in it we must husband our resources."

"If we are wise, that is where our resources will come in, not merely of our men, but of cash. We have won with a silver bullet before. We financed Europe in the greatest war we ever fought and that is what won."

Of course, British tenacity and British courage always come in, and they always will. But let us remember that British cash tells too."

RINES ABANDONS CONTEST

Candidate for State Auditor of Minnesota Admits Defeat.

St. Paul, Sept. 9.—Henry Rines has abandoned the election contest in which he sought to show that errors in the counting were responsible for the nomination of J. A. O. Preus as a candidate for state auditor on the Republican ticket. Mr. Rines' statement in part follows:

"After having recounted twenty counties, including Ramsey, Hennepin and St. Louis, I have become convinced that Mr. Preus has received a plurality of the votes in the primary contest for state auditor and I concede his nomination."

INDIAN FORCES ARE FIGHTING IN FRANCE.

London, Sept. 9.—That the Indian forces of the British army are taking an active part in the operations in France is indicated by the casualty lists. Among the names of the wounded made public is that of Captain F. W. Hunt, Ninth Indian army.

"OUR SUCCESSES ARE CONTINUED" SAYS GEN. GALLEN

FIRST REAL CRISIS OF GREAT WAR

Interest Centers in Fight Near Paris.

ALLIES GET AROUND GERMAN RIGHT FLANK

French and British Not Only Repulse Invaders but Are Gaining Ground.

London, Sept. 9.—The British and French forces north and east of Paris have had further successes against the German invaders, according to the official bulletin issued, while in Galicia the Russians continue with considerable success their attempt to envelop and defeat the Austrian army of 400,000 men under General Auffenberg.

For the moment at least interest centers in the campaign in France for it is felt that the battle proceeding there is the first real crisis of the war and will have a vital effect on the outcome.

The allies, according to a bulletin issued by the French war office, successfully have repulsed another attempt of the Germans to penetrate their center between Pore Champeuse and Vitry-le-Francois, where the roads and railways are more suited to the French movements than they would have been further north.

Repulse German Attack.

In fact, it is believed General Joffre purposely fell back from Chalons so that he could choose ground more favorable for his army for either defensive or offensive operations. It is this he seems to have been justified for not only was the German attack repulsed, but at Vitry-le-Francois the Germans actually lost ground.

This has been the scene of the heaviest fighting of the present battle, for on the German right, which the allies seem to have got around, General Kluck is falling back before the forward movement of the French and British forces toward the Marne between Meaux and Sezanne.

There must have been some fighting here, however, as the French report that some prisoners were taken from the enemy.

Allies Have Been Reinforced.

There have been many rumors of reinforcements having been sent this army by the allies. Some of the rumors are to the effect that Russian troops actually have joined it and others that the Indian troops took part in the fighting. These rumors, however, remain without confirmation and the more thoughtful observers of the war consider that the increased strength of the allies' left wing is due to the arrival of fresh troops from England and France and to the fact that the advanced defensive army of Paris is taking part in the operation.

The French are still sticking below the Lorraine frontier and here, according to the war office, have repulsed an attack made by the Germans on the line between Nancy and Chateau Salins. In Alsace, where the French advanced so quickly at the beginning of the war, there has been a long respite from serious fighting. This is due, in the opinion of military experts, to the withdrawal of the Germans, who were needed for the west, and probably to the return to Austria of troops sent to the assistance of the Germans last month.

THANKS BRITISH FOR AID

General Joffre Sends Message to Lord Kitchener.

London, Sept. 9.—The official press bureau announces that M. Millerand, the French war minister, has sent to Lord Kitchener the following telegram, dated Bordeaux, Sept. 7:

"I am pleased to transmit to you the following telegram which General Joffre requests me to send to you:

"The commander-in-chief of the French armies expresses to Lord Kitchener his warm thanks for the constant support given to our armies by the British forces during the whole course of the operations. At present that support is most valuable and is manifest in a very energetic manner in the action engaged against the German right wing.

"I am expressing my gratitude to Field Marshal French, who always has lent to our armies the most effective collaboration. Allow me, in the name of the government, to join the expression of my gratitude to that of the general in chief."

STUBBORN STRUGGLE IS RAGING

Big Battle Goes On East of Paris.

FRENCH DECLINE TO GRANT ARMISTICE

Commander Makes Curt Reply to German Request.

Paris, Sept. 9.—The battle which is proceeding to the east of Paris appears to be the most important and most stubbornly fought combat of the campaign. The military authorities decline to give any indication of the number of men engaged, but hundreds of thousands are participating on both sides.

According to those in a position to obtain authentic information the casualties have been so great that the Germans have requested an armistice of twenty-four hours. The armistice was refused with the response:

"We grant you that time to get out of France."

An official communication issued by the war office shows that the German wing, while retreating before the allies, has offered the sternest resistance, delivering several fierce but unsuccessful counter attacks.

"The fighting extended along both the Ourcq and Marne rivers," the statement says. "In the latter region the British forces have engaged in a strong offensive in undulating country. The progress of the allies has been exceedingly difficult."

"In the center of the allied line several further encounters have occurred, the two opposing forces having varying fortunes, which, however, are regarded as more favorable to the allies than to their adversaries."

FIGHTING EAST OF PARIS

French and British Armies Capture Many Germans.

Paris, Sept. 9.—The following official communication, bearing on the fighting now in progress to the east of the capital, was made public:

"The left wing of the allied armies, comprising certain portions of the forces now defending Paris, continues to make progress against the enemy."

"The French advance reaches from the banks of the river Ourcq into the Montmirail region. (Montmirail is about forty-eight miles east of Paris.)"

"The enemy is retreating in the direction of the River Marne, between Meaux (twenty miles east of Paris) and Sezanne (forty-two miles east from Meaux)."

"The French and the English armies have taken numerous prisoners, including a battalion of infantry and a company serving a detachment of rapid fire guns. They captured also many gun carriages."

"At no place have we fallen back; the enemy has lost ground."

French Troops Are Pressing Retiring Germans.

Paris, Sept. 9.—An official communication issued by the French war office says:

"The left wing of the German forces, in their move of retreat, having crossed the Petit Morin river with a view to protecting their communications, have made violent but unsuccessful attacks against that part of our forces occupying the right bank of the river Ourcq."

"Our English allies are continuing their offensive tactics in the direction of the Marne on the heights of the north of Sezanne."

"Our troops are progressing favorably, though laboriously."

"On our right wing the situation is good before Nancy and in the Vosges."

"A severe engagement has been fought in the center with alternative advancing and falling back."

TIME FOR ACTION AT HAND

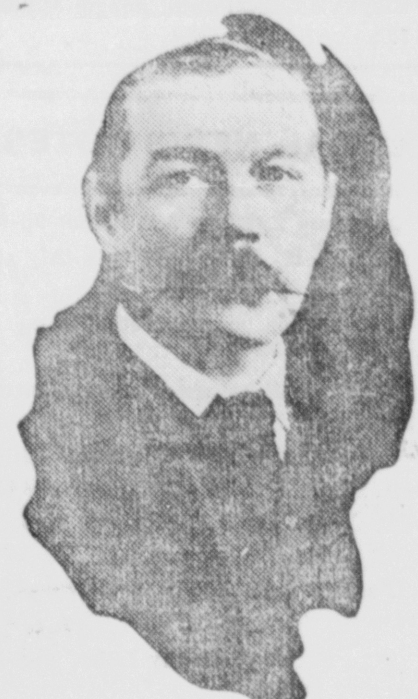

General Joffre Issues Stirring Order to French Troops.

London, Sept. 9.—A Reuter dispatch from Antwerp says an official communication there refers to an order by General Joffre, Sept. 7, in which he alludes to the impatience of his troops and says:

"This is no longer the moment to look behind, but the time has come to attack and drive back the enemy and to defend the ground regained, at any cost."

A. CONAN DOYLE.

Writes to Papers About Protection From Mines.

LOSSES FROM MINES AT SEA ROIL BRITONS

Conan Doyle Joins Others in Writing to Papers.

London, Sept. 9.—The destruction of the British cruiser Pathfinder and other vessels by mines has provoked much discussion regarding protection against mines.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and other prominent men have written letters to the papers inquiring why devices were not used to save ships from mines.

The British admiralty has long been investigating equipment for the explosion of mines before ships struck them. More than 1,000 devices for this purpose have been offered in England, but the British have found all effective equipment so heavy as to retard the speed of vessels. Nets strong enough to resist the pressure of water and discharge mines of fer such a resistance that their use is impossible.

"As a consequence, it is explained, the British, like other nations, have found mine sweepers the only satisfactory way to clear the seas of explosives. Two small boats dragging a heavy wire rope between them are used for the purpose of clearing the steamer routes. Scores of these are at work in the North sea."

Germany is not a signatory to the Hague convention, forbidding the use of mines, therefore England, which is at war with Germany, could use mines without violating the Hague convention. The British admiralty, however, announces that it refuses to resort to mines.

TWO FAMOUS CHURCHES BURNED BY INVADERS.

London, Sept. 9.—According to the correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company at The Hague the Germans have burned two famous churches at Dinant, Belgium.

One was the Church of St. Joseph, which contained an altar piece of Rubens, which was destroyed.

French Troops Are Pressing Retiring Germans.

Paris, Sept. 9.—An official communication issued by the French war office says:

"The left wing of the German forces, in their move of retreat, having crossed the Petit Morin river with a view to protecting their communications, have made violent but unsuccessful attacks against that part of our forces occupying the right bank of the river Ourcq."

"Our English allies are continuing their offensive tactics in the direction of the Marne on the heights of the north of Sezanne."

"Our troops are progressing favorably, though laboriously."

"On our right wing the situation is good before Nancy and in the Vosges."

"A severe engagement has been fought in the center with alternative advancing and falling back."

TURK'S WORDS REPUDIATED

Replies From State Department and British Embassy.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Both the state department and the British embassy here repudiated the suggestion of A. Rustem Bey, the Turkish ambassador, in his authorized statement, that Great Britain might be endeavoring to draw the United States into the European war in urging the dispatch of an American warship to Turkish waters to care for Christian interests in Turkey.

It is known authoritatively that Great Britain's expression on the subject answered an inquiry by the United States as to whether it would object to the sending of an American warship. The American government repudiated the powers before sending the cruiser North Carolina to Turkey.

GERMAN LOSSES ENORMOUS

French Officer Estimates Prisoners at Thirty Thousand.

Paris, Sept. 9.—Accounts of wounded soldiers who reached Paris indicate that the result of the three days' fighting in the champagne country has been more favorable for the allies than at first supposed. They say the German losses in killed were enormous and that a great number of prisoners were taken. One French officer estimates the prisoners at 30,000.

The champagne district includes parts of the departments of Marne, Ardennes, Aube and Haute-Marne.

FORCE LINE BACKABOUT TEN MILES

British Forces Defeat Germans.

TAKING OFFENSIVE ALONG ALLIED FRONT

Kaiser's Legions Are Said to Have Suffered Severely.

London, Sept. 9.—The British official press bureau issued the following announcement:

"The general position continues satisfactory. The allies are gaining ground on their left all along the line of the Ourcq and Petit Morin rivers. The British have driven the enemy back ten miles."

"Fighting has been in progress further to the right along the line which includes Montmirail and Sompnis, neither side gaining advantage."

"Further to the right, again from Vitry-le-Francois to Serny-le-Bains, the enemy has been pressed back in the direction of Rheims."

"At Lunerville an attempt by the Germans to advance has been repulsed."

"Pressure against the enemy continues all along the allied fronts. The British force has been engaged all day, but the enemy opposed to it, after stubborn resistance, retired and is crossing to the north of the Marne."

"The Fifth French army has advanced with equal success and reports many captures."

"The Sixth French army on the Ourcq has been engaged heavily, but here also the enemy has been driven back."

"The German army has suffered severely along the whole line, the advance having been pushed home resolutely."

"The British force again has sustained some casualties, but the number is small in relation to the nature of the fighting."

"The result of the two days' operations up to the present is very satisfactory."

MUST HUSBAND RESOURCES

Great Britain Will Carefully Guard Her Finances.

London, Sept. 9.—"We want every penny we can raise to help fight the enemy," David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, said, replying to a deputation from the municipalities who wanted the help of the treasury in obtaining loans at cheap rates.

"We must come out triumphant in this struggle," continued the chancellor, "and as finance is going to play a very important part in it we must husband our resources."

"If we are wise, that is where our resources will come in, not merely of our men, but of cash. We have won with a silver bullet before. We financed Europe in the greatest war we ever fought and that is what won. Of course, British tenacity and British courage always come in, and they always will. But let us remember that British cash tells too."

RINES ABANDONS CONTEST

Candidate for State Auditor of Minnesota Admits Defeat.

St. Paul, Sept. 9.—Henry Rines has abandoned the election contest in which he sought to show that errors in the counting were responsible for the nomination of J. A. O. Preus as a candidate for state auditor on the Republican ticket. Mr. Rines' statement in part follows:

"After having recounted twenty counties, including Ramsey, Hennepin and St. Louis, I have become convinced that Mr. Preus has received a plurality of the votes in the primary contest for state auditor and I concede his nomination."

INDIAN FORCES ARE FIGHTING IN FRANCE.

London, Sept. 9.—That the Indian forces of the British army are taking an active part in the operations in France is indicated by the casualty lists.

Among the names of the wounded made public is that of Captain F. W. Hunt, Ninth Indian Brigade.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Inserted by and on behalf of Erick Kronberg, for which the sum of $4 is to be paid.

To the citizens and taxpayers of Crow Wing county:

There has been some misleading statements circulated by Mr. Claus Theorin, and his vote getters, with the object of poisoning the public mind towards me and my candidacy for sheriff.

It is true that nothing has been said against my character or my integrity but Mr. Theorin has tried to impress the voters of Crow Wing county with the absurd statement, that I had a big salary and was well fixed, and did not need the job of sheriff.

It is true that I have been working for N. P. Ry. Co. going on 25 years and I have worked hard and faithfully for small wages and any one can verify my statement by inquiring at the office of shop superintendent Brainerd shops.

It is also true that I have not spent my hard earned money in saloons, as a good many do, but I have put what little I could save in land and am paying my share of taxes in Crow Wing county the same as every citizen.

Mr. Theorin on the other hand, claims that he has been deputy sheriff for seven years, that he has worked for small wages and is entitled to the job.

Now Mr. Citizen and Taxpayer, let us stop for a moment and consider the statement made by Mr. Theorin. I think by doing so we will find that Mr. Theorin has a bigger bonanza than you and I have known.

In the first place, Mr. Theorin is paid by Crow Wing county $1,020 a year, or $85.00 a month as jailer, then on top of that he is paid $3.00 a day as deputy sheriff during the term of court, and all expenses and mileage, when doing any of the county's work. This can be verified by any one who will take the trouble and ask the county auditor or look up the financial statement for 1913.

I will ask any person, if Mr. Theorin who has been living on the fat of Crow Wing county (for 7 years as he claims he has) at a double salary, is entitled to any more consideration at the hands of the voters of Crow Wing county than anyone else. I for one, think that any citizen and taxpayer has the same right and privilege (and Mr. Theorin being entitled to the job of sheriff should be entirely forgotten.)

Mr. Citizen and tax payer are you willing to vote in a man for sheriff of Crow Wing county that is working the sympathy racket? Do you think that he will do justice and uphold the law of our county and state?

I am writing this at this time that Mr. Theorin will have a chance to deny my statement and also to give the voters and taxpayers time to investigate.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Columbia

As predicted by the Columbia management the show last night was without an equal. Kathlyn Williams never appeared to better advantage.

"The Leopard's Foundling" is a beautiful play filled with thrills and sensation. Its scenic settings are marvelous examples of African jungle life and will interest the old and young. Marc McDermott appeared in the second of his series of "The Man Who Disappeared," entitled "The Hunted Animal."

The comedy taking hilarious laughter as a criterion was the limit. Tomorrow a Vitaphone masterpiece entitled "The House on the Hill" with an all-star cast will hold forth. Mary Pickford who regularly appears every Thursday and Friday will this week be seen in "Wilful Peggy."

At the Grand

The new Grand theatre which will be the finest small show house in the Northwest, will open on Sept. 14th with "Tray of Hearts." Louis Joseph Vance, the noted novelist and author, of "Tray of Hearts," will especially please the patrons of the Grand.

He is one of the few writers who puts out stories with real action, original situation and vigorous incidents in them.

His novels, which ran serially in Munsey's Magazine, "The Brass Bowl," "The Black Bag" and "The Bronze Ball," were particularly noted for the virile treatment given them.

Having known life from the bottom up, having traveled the world over and sought excitement and experience, always he plans his stories with the keen knowledge of human nature and with an eye to the best in dramatic composition.

Mr. Vance was born in Washington, D. C., Sept. 19, 1879, the son of Wilson Vance of Findlay, O.

His father was known as one of the youngest soldiers in the Army of the Cumberland. At the close of the civil war he became a newspaper man. He was for a long time a Washington correspondent for the most prominent newspapers of the west at that day and later turned to editorial work.

He was the author of several novels and it is probable that Louis Vance inherited his taste for letters from him. However, Mr. Vance deferred his attempt at story writing until after he married in 1898. In fact, 1902 witnessed the writing of his first story. The sale of this story determined his future career, and since that time he has devoted his life to fiction work.

It is very probable that during the adaptation of Mr. Vance's "Trey o' Hearts" to the screen, the author in person will be present to assist and suggest.

The production work will be done at the Universal's West Coast studios, Universal City, Cal.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Columbia

As predicted by the Columbia management the show last night was without an equal. Kathlyn Williams never appeared to better advantage. "The Leopard's Foundling" is a beautiful play filled with thrills and sensation. Its scenic settings are marvelous examples of African jungle life and will interest the old and young. Marc McDermott appeared in the second of his series of "The Man Who Disappeared," entitled "The Hunted Animal." The comedy taking hilarious laughter as a criterion was the limit. Tomorrow a Vitaphone masterpiece entitled "The House on the Hill" with an all-star cast will hold forth. Mary Pickford who regularly appears every Thursday and Friday will this week be seen in "Wilful Peggy."

At the Grand

The new Grand theatre which will be the finest small show house in the Northwest, will open on Sept. 14th with "Tray of Hearts." Louis Joseph Vance, the noted novelist and author, of "Tray of Hearts," will especially please the patrons of the Grand. He is one of the few writers who puts out stories with real action, original situation and vigorous incidents in them.

His novels, which ran serially in Munsey's Magazine, "The Brass Bowl," "The Black Bag" and "The Bronze Ball," were particularly noted for the virile treatment given them.

Having known life from the bottom up, having traveled the world over and sought excitement and experience, always he plans his stories with the keen knowledge of human nature and with an eye to the best in dramatic composition.

Mr. Vance was born in Washington, D. C., Sept. 19, 1879, the son of Wilson Vance of Findlay, O.

His father was known as one of the youngest soldiers in the Army of the Cumberland. At the close of the civil war he became a newspaper man. He was for a long time a Washington correspondent for the most prominent newspapers of the west at that day and later turned to editorial work.

He was the author of several novels and it is probable that Louis Vance inherited his taste for letters from him. However, Mr. Vance deferred his attempt at story writing until after he married in 1898. In fact, 1902 witnessed the writing of his first story. The sale of this story determined his future career, and since that time he has devoted his life to fiction work.

It is very probable that during the adaption of Mr. Vance's "Tray of Hearts" to the screen, the author in person will be present to assist and suggest.

The production work will be done at the Universal's West Coast studios, Universal City, Cal.

Don't go round with a grouch. You make yourself disagreeable to everybody. Your mental attitude is doubtless due to some physical ailment. Get a package of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Inserted by and on behalf of Erick Kronberg, for which the sum of $4 is to be paid.

To the citizens and taxpayers of Crow Wing county:

There has been some misleading statements circulated by Mr. Claus Theorin, and his vote getters, with the object of poisoning the public mind towards me and my candidacy for sheriff.

It is true that nothing has been said against my character or my integrity but Mr. Theorin has tried to impress the voters of Crow Wing county with the absurd statement, that I had a big salary and was well fixed, and did not need the job of sheriff.

It is true that I have been working for N. P. Ry. Co. going on 25 years and I have worked hard and faithfully for small wages and any one can verify my statement by inquiring at the office of shop superintendent Brainerd shops.

It is also true that I have not spent my hard earned money in saloons, as a good many do, but I have put what little I could save in land and am paying my share of taxes in Crow Wing county the same as every citizen.

Mr. Theorin on the other hand, claims that he has been deputy sheriff for seven years, that he has worked for small wages and is entitled to the job.

Now Mr. Citizen and Taxpayer, let us stop for a moment and consider the statement made by Mr. Theorin. I think by doing so we will find that Mr. Theorin has a bigger bonanza than you and I have known.

In the first place, Mr. Theorin is paid by Crow Wing county $1,020 a year, or $85.00 a month as jailer, then on top of that he is paid $3.00 a day as deputy sheriff during the term of court, and all expenses and mileage, when doing any of the county's work. This can be verified by any one who will take the trouble and ask the county auditor or look up the financial statement for 1913.

I will ask any person, if Mr. Theorin who has been living on the fat of Crow Wing county (for 7 years as he claims he has) at a double salary, is entitled to any more consideration at the hands of the voters of Crow Wing county than anyone else. I for one, think that any citizen and taxpayer has the same right and privilege (and Mr. Theorin being entitled to the job of sheriff should be entirely forgotten.)

Mr. Citizen and tax payer are you willing to vote in a man for sheriff of Crow Wing county that is working the sympathy racket? Do you think that he will do justice and uphold the law of our county and state?

I am writing this at this time that Mr. Theorin will have a chance to deny my statement and also to give the voters and taxpayers time to investigate.

E. KRONBERG.

IVORY SOAP

IF Ivory Soap sold for 25 cents per cake, a great many people would consider it the finest toilet soap in the world.

Because it sells for 5 cents some think it is merely laundry soap.

The fact is, Ivory Soap could not be made better for toilet purposes if it sold for $10 per cake. It contains the finest materials that can be bought. It is made perfectly so that there is no free alkali or free oil in the finished product. It is mild. It is white. It is pure. It floats. It lathers freely and rinses easily.

The inside page related the bedding bargains, cotton and wool blankets, etc., for sale at Michael's.

THE WAR IN THE OLD COUNTRY

Rev. Elof Carlson Describes His Experience in Recent Visit in Sweden

WAS STORMY ON THE ATLANTIC

Miss Mamie Peterson Says the Scandinavian Countries are Deeply Affected by the War

In a letter to the Dispatch Rev. Elof Carlson, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church, describes his experiences while on a visit in Europe. He says:

"We left Baggetorp, Sweden, on August 20 and arrived in Kristiania, Norway, August 21, where we were met by Miss Mamie Peterson who joined us. We spent a day in that city, taking in the exhibition which was very interesting considering a small country.

Our boat, "Hellig Olaf" came in from Copenhagen of the Scandinavian-American line which was the only line at this time that was making its regular trips. This boat in going over to Scandinavian ports was held up by English torpedo boats. About 50 armed men came on board and examined all papers. We were about 1500 passengers. The majority were American tourists. Many of these had exciting war experiences.

We left Kristiansand August 22. We had nice weather until we reached the Atlantic ocean. There for two days we had stormy weather which caused the boat to roll and many became seasick.

Reaching Newfoundland we saw English war ships which threw their search lights on us at night, but not causing any disturbance. In crossing the Newfoundland banks it was very foggy, causing a delay of several hours.

A congressman from Pennsylvania was with us, making several speeches. He was appointed chairman of the committee elected to give aid to everyone in need.

We reached New York safely September 2, all glad to get back to the U. S. A. We spent two days at New York. We visited Wall street, but the large places were at a standstill. The stock exchange was closed.

We left there for Niagara Falls, arriving there in the morning of September 4. We saw the American and Canadian falls. Had the pleasure of going down the tunnel underneath the falls, which is very wonderful and interesting to see. We also visited Queen Victoria park on the Canadian side. We left there at 1:30 for Chicago, arriving there in the morning, spending the day in visiting parts of the city. Then we separated, the Carlson staying in Chicago visiting with friends and relatives and Miss Mamie Peterson leaving for her home in Brainerd."

Miss Mamie Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Peterson, returned to her home at Brainerd Sunday after having spent four months in Europe. She said Norway and the Scandinavian countries are deeply affected by the war. In some cities the men formed in bands and broke into stores and looted them. These riots were caused because the grocers had doubled their prices. People rushed to the banks for their money and stood in the streets for blocks waiting their turn. The banks refused full payment of deposits, paying but a certain percentage. "We were all glad on board when we saw the shores of the U. S. A. once more," said Miss Peterson.

MYSTERY SOLVED

Mystery of the Eternal Question Appearing in Dispatch and About City Solved

The other night the query, "Did you sleep well last night?" stared at one throughout the Dispatch and all about the city in advertising matter sent out.

People wondered about the question and at length solved it when they read a circular from the H. F. Michael store which said: "Did you sleep well last night? There are many things conducive to a good night's rest, the chief of which is told about on the inside page. Of course this comes from Michael's." The inside page related the bedding bargains, cotton and wool blankets, etc., for sale at Michael's.

THE WAR IN THE OLD COUNTRY

Rev. Elof Carlson Describes His Experience in Recent Visit in Sweden

WAS STORMY ON THE ATLANTIC

Miss Mamie Peterson Says the Scandinavian Countries are Deeply Affected by the War

In a letter to the Dispatch Rev. Elof Carlson, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church, describes his experiences while on a visit in Europe. He says:

"We left Baggetorp, Sweden, on August 20 and arrived in Kristiania, Norway, August 21, where we were met by Miss Mamie Peterson who joined us. We spent a day in that city, taking in the exhibition which was very interesting considering a small country.

Our boat, "Hellig Olaf" came in from Copenhagen of the Scandinavian-American line which was the only line at this time that was making its regular trips. This boat in going over to Scandinavian ports was held up by English torpedo boats. About 50 armed men came on board and examined all papers. We were about 1500 passengers. The majority were American tourists. Many of these had exciting war experiences.

We left Kristiansand August 22. We had nice weather until we reached the Atlantic ocean. There for two days we had stormy weather which caused the boat to roll and many became seasick.

Reaching Newfoundland we saw English war ships which threw their search lights on us at night, but not causing any disturbance. In crossing the Newfoundland banks it was very foggy, causing a delay of several hours.

A congressman from Pennsylvania was with us, making several speeches. He was appointed chairman of the committee elected to give aid to everyone in need.

We reached New York safely September 2, all glad to get back to the U. S. A. We spent two days at New York. We visited Wall street, but the large places were at a standstill. The stock exchange was closed.

We left there for Niagara Falls, arriving there in the morning of September 4. We saw the American and Canadian falls. Had the pleasure of going down the tunnel underneath the falls, which is very wonderful and interesting to see. We also visited Queen Victoria park on the Canadian side. We left there at 1:30 for Chicago, arriving there in the morning, spending the day in visiting parts of the city. Then we separated, the Carlson staying in Chicago visiting with friends and relatives and Miss Mamie Peterson leaving for her home in Brainerd."

Miss Mamie Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Peterson, returned to her home at Brainerd Sunday after having spent four months in Europe. She said Norway and the Scandinavian countries are deeply affected by the war. In some cities the men formed in bands and broke into stores and looted them. These riots were caused because the grocers had doubled their prices. People rushed to the banks for their money and stood in the streets for blocks waiting their turn. The banks refused full payment of deposits, paying but a certain percentage. "We were all glad on board when we saw the shores of the U. S. A. once more," said Miss Peterson.

For Manly Men

We have purposely made up a tobacco to appeal to the strong, vigorous man who wants full flavor and fragrance combined with natural sweetness in his smoke or chew. This tobacco is PEERLESS. It was put on the market fifty years ago especially to satisfy the tobacco hungry man. It has filled the bill.

Firemen, policemen, out-of-doors men, two-fisted men in general, all say PEERLESS satisfies. Once they start using PEERLESS they cannot get the same satisfaction out of any other brand.

PEERLESS

has character to it. That's why it appeals to and pleases these men of sturdy character.

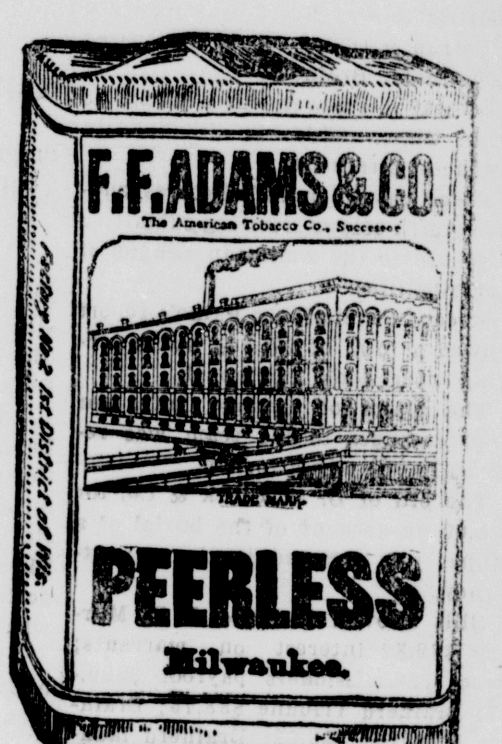

PEERLESS is made from pure Southern Kentucky leaf, aged for three to five years, so as to bring out slowly and naturally all the juicy mellowness and richness of the tobacco. That's why its quality never varies—and that's why hurried-up, hashed-up tobaccos can't compare with PEERLESS.

In the strenuous hours of work or in the pleasant hours of relaxation, be sure to have some of this wonderful tobacco with you.

Just try PEERLESS for a week—"Smoke it or chew it—but go straight to it." Sold everywhere in 5c packages.

Cost Kept Down—Quality Kept Up

No better medicine could be made for coughs, colds, croup, hoarseness, tickling throat, bronchitis, etc., than Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. That's why they can't improve the quality, and war or no war, the price remains the same. No opiates. Don't take substitutes, for Foley's Honey and Tar is the best. H. P. Dunn.—Advt. mwf

Citrolax

Users say it is the ideal, perfect laxative drink. M. J. Perkins, Green Bay, Wis., says "I have used pills, oils, salts, etc., but were all disagreeable and unsatisfactory. In Citrolax I have found the ideal laxative drink." For sick headache, sour stomach, lazy liver, congested bowels, Citrolax is ideal. H. P. Dunn.—Advt. mwf

ITALY AND SPAIN MAY JOIN

France Expects Increase in Countries at War.

London, Sept. 8.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Bordeaux says: "Much attention is being paid here to the possible inclusion of Italy and Spain in the number of countries at war. 'The strained relations between Italy and her former allies have been greatly aggravated in the past three days, while in spirit, it is said, public opinion is becoming most insistent for a declaration in support of Great Britain and France.'"

A Lame Back—Kidney Trouble Causes It

And it will give you even worse if not checked. Mrs. H. T. Straynge, Gainesville, Ga., was fairly down on her back with kidney trouble and inflamed bladder. She says: "I took Foley Kidney Pills and now my back

For Manly Men

We have purposely made up a tobacco to appeal to the strong, vigorous man who wants full flavor and fragrance combined with natural sweetness in his smoke or chew. This tobacco is PEERLESS. It was put on the market fifty years ago especially to satisfy the tobacco hungry man. It has filled the bill.

Firemen, policemen, out-of-doors men, two-fisted men in general, all say PEERLESS satisfies. Once they start using PEERLESS they cannot get the same satisfaction out of any other brand.

PEERLESS

has character to it. That's why it appeals to and pleases these men of sturdy character.

PEERLESS is made from pure Southern Kentucky leaf, aged for three to five years, so as to bring out slowly and naturally all the juicy mellowness and richness of the tobacco. That's why its quality never varies—and that's why hurried-up, hashed-up tobaccos can't compare with PEERLESS.

In the strenuous hours of work or in the pleasant hours of relaxation, be sure to have some of this wonderful tobacco with you.

Just try PEERLESS for a week—"Smoke it or chew it—but go straight to it." Sold every where in 5c packages.

Other sizes, 10c, 20c and 40c Packages, and 45c Tin Pails.
